

FINANCIAL IMPACT SUMMARY

Right to Competitive Energy Market for Customers of Investor-Owned Utilities; Allowing Energy Choice

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The proposed amendment is estimated to cost state and local government at least $1,300,000,000 to $1,700,000,000 in upfront or one-time costs and more than $825,000,000 in annual, ongoing costs. Over ten years, the cost to state and local government is estimated to be more than $9,500,000,000. Other restructuring costs and revenue losses that will be incurred, but are not quantified at this time, are not included in this estimate.
