

System Council U-4 Negotiation News

May 27, 2008

Volume #1 Number #4

The System Committee and the Company were to begin negotiations today however, at the Company's request; negotiations have been postponed for one week. The "official" start of negotiations will begin next Tuesday, June 3rd, 2008.

Next week we will trade proposal packages on Tuesday; then spend Wednesday and Thursday discussing the respective proposal packages.

The System Committee would like to remind everyone to "Keep up the good work and remember to work safe; every day, on every job."
